There's nothing like community charity during the holidays

By FAN staff

A caring community once again came through to provide holiday assistance to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Families And Community Engaged (F.A.C.E.) organizers, businesses, the Fruitport Lions, and volunteers provided meals for 191 area families and gifts for over 400 students.

These events are an enormous challenge, and volunteers are a key to their success. Now that the program is in its second year, future success can only be guaranteed with additional volunteers. Many businesses hosted collection bins, Christmas wish trees, and cash drop off sites, so even if you donated at one of these sites, you were a part of the F.A.C.E. successful holidays. Thank you.•
