

Fruitport Honor Graduates 2009

Jamie Marie Adams, daughter of Jim and Kim Adams of Fruitport, will attend Adrian College or Central Michigan University where she will study sociology. Jamie participated in varsity soccer during her high school career.

Tiffany Lynn Brufladt, daughter of Mike and Patricia Brufladt of Fruitport, will attend Muskegon Community College to study health care or business. Tiffany participated in varsity, volleyball, and belonged to the Inside Out volleyball national team.

Robert Dale Afton, III, son of Dale and Cheryl Afton of Fruitport, plans on a career in engineering and will attend Grand Valley State University. Robert participated in varsity basketball, baseball, and cross country.

Anna Louise Tyler Carter, daughter of Jeri Tyler of Muskegon, will attend Muskegon Community College, transferring to Western Michigan University to study art and business. Anna was an editor of Escape Magazine, participated in Imagery and Upstagers, and illustrated covers for Escape Magazine and musical production programs. Anna's artwork was accepted into the Governor's Traveling Show throughout Michigan.

Hannah Isabelle Bartels, daughter of William and Kathy Bartels of Spring Lake, may attend Grand Rapids Community College or Northwestern College in Iowa to study sports recreation management and youth ministry. Hannah participated in basketball, National Honor Society, Business Professionals of America, soccer, and church youth group.

Brooke Elizabeth Churchill, daughter of Chris Churchill and Laura Gotaas, both of Fruitport, will pursue a career in nursing at Grand Valley State University. Brooke participated in student council, National Honor Society, the mentoring program, and held a part-time job.

Marissa Linn Bo, daughter of Glenn and Mary Bo of Fruitport, will study business administration at Grace College in Indiana. Marissa was elected to the state office of president of Business Professionals of America, and student council president. She was a member of the National Honor Society, church youth group, Conflict Management, varsity soccer, Spanish Club, and the mentoring program.

Kelcie Lynn Dekker, daughter of Dale and Kelly Dekker of Fruitport, will study pre-med at Grand Valley State University. Kelcie was a volunteer youth swimming instructor, a member of the National Honor Society, senior representative to student council, Spanish Club vice president, and participated in track and field.

Kaitlyn Nicole Dursema, daughter of David and Suzette Dursema of Fruitport, will attend Muskegon Community College to pursue a career in the medical field. Kaitlyn was a National Honor Society officer and senior class president of student council.

Jonathan Bryan Erny, son of Ken and Lori Erny of Spring Lake, will attend Taylor University or Cedarville University. He plans to pursue a career in secondary education or physical therapy. Jonathan was a member of National Honor Society, varsity tennis, soccer, basketball, golf, and volunteered for the tennis and basketball summer camps.

Mary Elizabeth Gould, daughter of Scott and Kathy Gould of Fruitport, will attend Cedarville University in Ohio to pursue a career in nursing. Mary was a member of varsity tennis, church youth group, Fruitport Upstagers, school musical productions, Imagery, and National Honor Society.

Kaleigh Marie Haase, daughter of Jeff and Jennifer Haase of Fruitport, will study psychology at Cornerstone University. Kaleigh participated in student council, National Honor Society, golf, and church youth group.

Seth A. Hilaski, son of Terry and Janean Hilaski of Spring Lake, will attend Muskegon Community College and then transfer to Grand Valley State University to study engineering. Seth volunteered for the Red Cross blood drive and was a church volunteer.

Brianna Desirae Hunter, daughter of Don and Lori Hunter of Muskegon, wants to study secondary education at Muskegon Community College. Brianna was a mentor for Kids Hope, USA, a member of National Honor Society, and church youth group.

Jake Robert Johnson, son of Rick and Lori Johnson of Fruitport, will attend Ferris State University to become a radiologist. Jake was a member of varsity bowling, tennis, and golf.

Blake Steven Kelly, son of Steve and Amy Kelly of Muskegon, will pursue a career in the medical field. He will attend Grand Valley State University in the fall. Blake participated in varsity track, varsity football, student council, Business Professionals of America, and was a math tutor at Fruitport Middle School.

Karly Anna Krentz, daughter of Rick and Terri Krentz of Muskegon, will study culinary arts at Grand Rapids Community College or the New England Culinary Institute. Karly was a member of the culinary arts team, church youth group, cheerleading, and was a National Honor Society officer.

Ashley Danielle Loader, daughter of Jeff Loader and Cathy Pierce, both of Muskegon, will attend Northern Michigan University to study forensic biochemistry. Ashley participated in tennis, wind ensemble, marching band, National Honor Society, and drama.

Breanna Lynn Mason, daughter of Robert and Dana Mason of Muskegon, will attend Muskegon Community College and then transfer to Ferris State University to pursue a career as a pharmacist. Breanna was a member of National Honor Society, Business Professionals of America, and volunteered her time at a local pharmacy.

Clinton Lee Mathews, son of Larry and Tammie Mathews of Muskegon, wants to become a physician's assistant. He will attend Grand Valley State University this fall. Clinton participated in National Honor Society, varsity bowling, and volunteered his time at an elementary school and a local hospital.

Kerri Elizabeth Paggeot, daughter of Brian and Molly Paggeot of Nunica, will study nuclear medicine at Ferris State University. Kerri participated in track, wind ensemble, tutoring, National Honor Society, and church youth group.

Congratulations,
Grads!

(continued on page 18...)