Fifth grade

By Meliss Nousain, Fifth grade teacher

It has been a busy year of learning at Calvary Christian School. The students have written about some of the "most exciting" things about fifth grade at Calvary, but I'd like to add that it is a real privilege to be able to teach every subject area from a Biblical world view. After all, that is what Calvary Christian School is all about!

5th grade at Calvary Christian School

by Kristina N. Warren

This year, we have been reading a "Book It" book every month since October. In October we read a mystery book, We wrote a book report like we were a news reporter. In November, we read a classic book. Our book report was an A-Z report where we draw and write something in our book for every letter. In December, we read a biography book. For our report, we had to make a puppet and write a paper on the person we read about. In January, we read a Newberry book. The report was a booklet that looked like a Newberry medalion. In February, we read an adventure. We haven't done our book report yet. In March, we are going to read a historical fiction. March is reading month. I personally think reading is really fun and so is 5th grade!
