2015 Graduates!

Lakeshore Home School Grads

Holly Jo Baldwin- "Holly Jo Baldwin has been homeschooled all her life with the exception of two years at WMAAA in middle school. Next year she will probably attend MCC to get a start on her degree as an Art Education major and in a few years transfer to a four year college not yet decided. In her spare time she draws, paints, sings, writes, and reads."

Allison Lena Jean Hollar- "Allison Lena Jean Hollar, born May 21, 1997. Celebrated by parents Dave and Anna along with sisters Gabbie and Bella as a 2015 honors graduate, talented artist, studying guitar, piano, violin, clarinet and oboe. Loves tennis, gymnastics and cheer leading. Pursuing a career in design following life verse Philipians 4:6."

John Weidner- "After graduation, I am enlisting in the Marine Corps. My goal is to begin college after boot camp in the winter or summer of 2016."

Chelsey Lee Correll- "Chelsey has been homeschooled since 7th grade and has also been attending Cosmetology school since her Junior year. After graduating Cosmetology school Chelsey plans to get a job at a salon and work while taking a few college classes. She has been in many summer plays over the years and enjoys singing and playing guitar. She has used her talent to lead worship at church and has the dream of becoming a worship team leader."

Emilee Petta- "I enjoy spending time with friends and family, I enjoy my job. Two years in the CTC Healthcare programs, I plan on taking a year off school to pursue Phlebotomy, then go to college to pursue Psychology."

Lydia Miller- "I am thinking of a few different options. For now I am working and saving for college."

Cade Snuffer- "I will be attending Grand Valley University in the fall majoring in Biomedical Engineering."

Tessa Saum- "My passions are people, worship, and missions. As the Lord would orchestrate, all three will be the focus of my summer. I will be spending 3 months in Sydney, Australia for a worship internship with Hillsong Church. I'm not sure where God will lead come September, but I am trusting Him knowing that His plans for me are perfect. Whether He keeps me here to minister in my own community or He sends me abroad, I will follow! Philipians 2:21-23"

Leah Wilcox- "I have enjoyed my high school years, specifically the parts involving my in-depth English classes and theater with my friends. I am both excited and nervous to begin this new chapter in my life by attending Grand Valley University this Fall. My major is undecided at the moment but I would like to pursue something that uses my passion for writing in a practical and enjoyable way. Isaiah 58:11"

Erin Herbert- She is excited to see where the Lord will take her after graduation. She enjoys painting, hiking, and spending time with her family. After graduation she plans on getting married to her high school sweetheart in July."
