DIBS!

On Resale

Good things are happening!

- DIBS! On Resale is a Thrift Store established to raise money for the West Michigan Area Christian Schools. We opened our doors in 2012 and moved to our current location at 1279 E Apple Ave in 2019.
- DIBS! On Resale receives generous donations from the community. Volunteers clean and sort everything that comes in. Our goal is to create a unique and fun shopping experience. Our customers shop in thrift stores to save money on clothes and everyday household items, but they are also on the hunt to find special items that you can't find anywhere else. We offer discounts on Tuesdays for Seniors and every day for Veterans.
- DIBS! On Resale sells just about anything. Books, clothing, shoes, household goods, furniture, toys, sporting goods, and even the occasional boat!
- New items are put out daily, and we want YOU to have first DIBS!

America Was Founded and Built on Faith in God

Declaration of Independence—July 4th 1776
"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."

John Adams
America's Second President

"God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God? Indeed I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that his justice cannot sleep forever."

Thomas Jefferson
Author of America's Declaration of Independence
America's Third President

"While we are zealously performing the duties of good citizens and soldiers, we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion. To the distinguished character of Patriot, it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished character of Christian."

General George Washington
America's First President

"We have staked the whole future of American civilization not on the power of government, far from it. We have staked the future of all of our political institutions upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God."

James Madison
Primary Author of the U.S. Constitution
America's Fourth President

"I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth—that God Governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid?"

Benjamin Franklin
A signer of both America's Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, founder of the University of Pennsylvania, one of the leading theorists of the American Revolution

Compare the character of these men with the character of those rioting for change in our country at this time.

Difficult to Deny

by Ron Cooper

If you study our history, it's difficult to deny that this country started out as a Christian country and benefitted from that. This country and its citizens have succeeded in nearly every way.

At this time there are many non-Christians that are influential in our government. Since we have been super successful as a Christian inspired and influenced government, why wouldn't we want to continue? Whether or not you're a Christian, wouldn't it make sense to continue with our extremely successful guidance with the expectation that we would continue on? Why, after all our success, would a reasonable person want to try a different system? No other system in the world has been close to being as successful. In fact, nearly every other system of government has had disastrous results, to the tune of millions of people dying, from starving to death to being tortured to death. In fact, that is happening today in China. It seems that people do not want to see that truth. The world's newest government, the South Sudan, is trying to copy our Republic and we have people pushing toward socialism / communism / anarchy, which has been disastrous for the Sudan population. If this is not an example of stupidity, what would you call it?

A lesson in Irony...

By Robert A Shackles (2/28/2013)

The Food Stamp Program, administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, is proud to be distributing this year the greatest amount of free Meals and Food Stamps ever, to 46 million people.

Meanwhile, the National Park Service, administered by the U.S. Department of the Interior, asks us, "Please Do Not Feed the Animals." Their stated reason for the policy is because, "The animals will grow dependent on handouts and will not learn to take care of themselves."

Thus ends today's lesson in irony.
