Fruitport District Library Second Annual Art Gala

by Kim Holtrop

Fruitport District Library hosted their second annual local artist gala and showcase Friday and Saturday, October 10-11, 2025. Sponsored by the Friends of the Fruitport Library, it featured more than eighty pieces from kids, teens, and adults.

Angie Lineberry's "Human Mind and the Stars Born," winner of the adult category

Friday's gallery opening began at 6pm with an artist meet and greet, accompanied by snacks and drinks in the library Community Room, and concluded at 8pm. Saturday's gallery viewing ran from 10am-2pm, and included a new and used books sale.

Patrons were encouraged to vote for their favorite pieces, and the winners from each category were announced the following week. Angie Lineberry won the adult prize with her

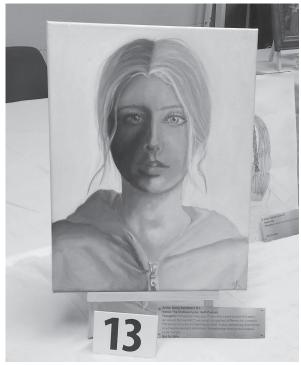

Avery Rufener's "Dancing Bear," #33, winner of the child category.

piece "Human Mind and the Born." Stars Molly Kenziera with her self portrait "Endless Cycle" won the teen category. And Avery Rufener and her "Dancing Bear" won the child
